

Outdoor Seminars

The Vienna Project

with expert

Dr. Jérôme Segal

Book a private or small group "Outdoor Seminar" walking excursion to The Vienna Project's 38 memory sites. Contact: jerome.segal@theviennaproject.org

Historian, Dr. Jérôme Segal, an Assist. Prof. University of Paris-Sorbonne and coordinator of Ph.D. College at the University of Vienna offers a series of "outdoor seminars" developed as walking excursions to the 38 memory sites in Vienna. He was the expert in charge of developing and researching the 38 sites. He presents an in-depth discussion about the sites in relation to the history of National Socialism in Vienna. He also weaves into the discussion, relevant commentary about a series of oral history interviews conducted with survivors at the 75th anniversary of the Anschluss. Jerome offers a two-hour "outdoor seminar" walk for 5-10 people. Visit the website at www.theviennaproject.org .

*Tours can be developed thematically by request.
For more information, contact Jérôme directly at jerome.segal@theviennaproject.org*