

THE VIENNA PROJECT

CALL FOR ARCHIVAL LETTERS FROM THE VICTIMS OF THE NAZI REGIME

THE VIENNA PROJECT is a public memory project memorializing multiple groups of persecuted Austrian victims under National Socialism. Beginning with a personal story from the project director about inherited letters, the project now involves performance art, video projections, installation art, a Naming Memorial, and more.

The Vienna Project's Closing Ceremony, taking place on 18.October 2014 at the Austrian National Library, will feature readings of archival letters written by Austrian victims of National Socialism. We need Xerox copies of archival letters written by victims or survivors between 1938-1945 in any language, that represent the following groups: Jews, Roma and Sinti, mentally ill and physically and mentally disabled, homosexuals, and persons who were persecuted on political grounds, Jehovah's Witnesses, and Carinthian Slovenian resisters.

If you have letters that fit these requirements please upload them to:
